

Often XM radio is the only source of radio in some stretches that I travel here in Montana and Canada. It is a great comfort and of value to me as a subscriber and the primary reason that I did subscribe in the beginning. It is difficult for me to understand why radio would have some programing bennifts or advatages that are not offered to XM.